From all reports the wedding bells begin to ring out in Madison early next month and continue throughout the entire month. Of course we do not pretend to state it as a fact, but we are told that no less than ten weddings will occur in our town during June.

Col. Angus Paterson and "G. Buck" attended the session of the Grand Lodge Royal Arch Masons in Jacksonville last week and report a most enjoyable session. Col. Paterson was presented by the Grand Chapter with a beautiful golden jewel of Past Grand High Priest which he values very highly.

Plumley Dickinson who has been a student at the Florida Seminary, Sutherland, for the past several months, reached home yesterday and will spend his vacation here. Plumley left us a small boy in "knee breeches," but he comes home clothed in the dignity of long trousers. We are glad to see him again.

A joke is a joke—nothing else can be made out of it—and we have one on certain one of the two men now running in the second primary for sheriff, and after it's all over we will tell you about it. The candidate we have reference to is running "em some"—he's a regular round-about, walks and talks in his sleep and—well, we'll give a bit of his campaign experience after June 7th.

W. B. Davis, chairman of the Waterworks Committee of the Town Council, is busy engaged this week in laying the pipe line between the standpipe and the plant of the Electric Company. It will be remembered that the council at a recent meeting contracted with the electric company to do the pumping of water for the town and arrangements for same are being completed as rapidly as possible.

W. A. Stanley returned home Tuesday after an absence of two years. His many friends welcome him, and of all his mother especially. Willie has traveled quite extensively, has "been the rounds" as many others have done, but acted wisely—a thing many a day neglect and fail to do—give up fortune hunting and return to the home, sweet home of a mother's tenderest love. We hope to have him remain among us.

His card will appear in this paper next week, and persons requiring attention of the eye will do well to consult the card and learn the dates of each month when he will be here.
